A CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Paris Readers.

For months Paris citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Paris residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? No stronger proof of merit can be had than cures that have stood the test of time. The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Paris reader:

Mrs. J. W. Huffman, 115 N. Main street, Paris, Ky., says: "I gladly corroborate the public statement I gave in 1905 in which I made the fact known that I had used Doan's Kidney Pills with satisfactory results. I had sharp pains across my back and kidneys and at times I was so miserable that I could hardly attend to my work. Headaches and dizzy spells were also common. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all these symptoms of disordered kidneys and I have never had any return attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

L. & N. Loses in U. S. Court.

United States Judges Warrington, Sandford and Dennison, sitting as the new United States Court of Commerce in Covington Monday handed down a decision in the case of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company against the State Railroad Commission of Kentucky attacking the validity of that body. The hearing of the arguments in the case took place several months ago, the Court being the first of its kind to sit in the United States, and the decision is probably the first handed down by any body of that kind.

The attorneys for the Louisville and Nashville railroad sought to enjoin the Kentucky Railroad Commission from interfering and dictating rates, claiming that the State Railroad Commission was unconstitutional inasmuch as it conflicted with the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission. A temporary injunction was granted at the time the case was heard, but the Court refused to grant a permanent injunction on the grounds that it does not consider the McCord act as an attempt to regulate interstate commerce. Many similar cases were referred to in the document, which required over two hours of reading.

The railroad is granted the right of appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States and the Court continued the temporary restraining order for a period of 30 days or until final disposition of the case by the Supreme Court. The Court refrained from passing on the demurrers to the petition.

The suit was precipitated by a complaint of the Greenbrier Distilling Company, of Chapline, Nelson county, against the railroad for excessive charges in rates per ton on coal shipped from Eastern Kentucky. The State Railroad Commission ordered a reduction of the rate, which the railroad declined to give and filed an injunction in the Federal Court alleging the commission is unconstitutional on the ground that it combined legislative, executive and judicial qualifications. Judge Cochran having affirmed for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad before Judge Evans previous to his appointment on the bench in a similar case, declined to sit, and passed the case up to the Court of Commerce.

Scott's Emulsion

is a wonderful food-medicine for all ages of mankind. It will make the delicate, sickly baby strong and well—will give the pale, anemic girl rosy cheeks and rich, red blood. It will put flesh on the bones of the tired, overworked, thin man, and will keep the aged man or woman in condition to resist colds or pneumonia in the winter.

Walter of the Bird-Meadow.

Walter Von Der Vogelweide was one of the principal minnesingers of the thirteenth century. He triumphed over Heinrich Von Ofterdingen in that poetic contest at Wartburg Castle, known as the War of Wurtburg.—Note to one of Longfellow's Poems.

A Sensitive Ear.

The poet, Malherbe, the founder of the purity of the French language, was very sensitive on the score of diction. When, during his last moments, his confessor, by way of encouraging him, began to enlarge on the joys of paradise. "Stop," cried Malherbe. "Your ungrammatical style is giving me a distaste for them!"

What a Man Really Wants.

Charity is a fine thing, but a chance to make good is usually appreciated more.
